2. Judicial Review

Fundraising for the last stage of our Judicial Review. We are still fundraising for this and welcome any amount you can give us.

This can be by cheque or via our bank account or via our Just Giving account.

We still believe the development of 205 homes is grossly excessive, the existing infrastructure cannot cope and there are no plans for improvements. Winning this case will lay down a marker to other developers and Wealden that this community fights for what is right. Without our campaign, this development would have already been built and even more speculative applications would have been submitted. Redrow have submitted a full planning application for 205 homes. They have brushed aside the issues of the existing Section 106 Planning Condition preventing development and the fact that the Judicial Review is still not determined. Their arrogance and discourtesy to this community is not unexpected. However, our campaign has bought us time. This new application will have to be scrutinised against new legislation and we believe that the Planning Committee will be more favourable to our concerns this time.

3. Change in tide of opinion re Planning, nationally and locally

The tide is changing against the amount of overdevelopment in Wealden, in East

Sussex, in West Sussex, in Kent and in the South East. Every day there is more and more outrage from members of the public, from the Parish Councils joining together with others, with Town Councils

b) Attached a letter from an Uckfield Town Councillor to Michael Gove MP, Secretary of State for Housing, Communities and Local Government of the United Kingdom.

c) CPRE Sussex is supporting a new campaign to protect Sussex countryside! JPI Media, which publishes newspapers across Sussex, has launched a campaign to change the way national policies impose unsustainable house building targets across East and West Sussex. Find out how you can support the campaign at <http://www.cpresussex.org.uk/.../cpre-sussex-supports.../>

d) We also attach a letter to Michael Gove MP, from Save Kent's Green Spaces. Another letter arguing against the destruction of the countryside.
